He was included to the list of "33 best" for the five times, he led the ranking in 1970, then was the second in 1964 and 1971, and took the third place in 1965 and 1972. He was the member of the symbolic Club of Lev Yashin for his 138 clean sheet matches. He didn't concede goals over a period of 1122 minutes in a row in the 1967-68. XV International Viktor Bannikov Memorial tournament

Ukraine will burst into the festive atmosphere of youth football at the end of the summer. Our country will host seven national teams under 17 from different European countries. During five days, from August 15 to 19, they will delight Ukrainian fans with interesting and uncompromising football. After all, the main target is an honorary cup of prestigious competition which is named after the legendary goalkeeper of Dynamo Kyiv and the first president of the Football Federation of Ukraine Viktor Bannikov.

The national teams under 17 from Ukraine, Georgia, Belarus, Lithuania, Israel, Slovakia, Turkey and Latvia will take part in the XV International Youth Tournament in memory of the first head of the national federation. 16 matches among which there are 12 games of the group stage and 4 final stage matches will be held at four football arenas of the Kyiv region s. a. Bannikov stadium in Kyiv, Melnyk Stadium in Obuhiv, "Kolos" in Boryspil and "Kniazha Arena" in Shchaslyve.

By the way, unlike the last year's tournament, this year the stadium "Yuvileinyi" in Bucha is replaced by the stadium near the FFU Football House, named after the first president of the Football Federation Viktor Bannikov, where the final match will be held.

It is noteworthy that this year tournament will be held in August, not in May as it was the previous years. The reason is that the tournament changed its status into the completion for 17 years old players while it was for 16-year-olds before. Despite the fact that for the first Viktor Bannikov Memorial tournament took place in Ukraine in 2002, the modern format of the competition with the involvement of the youth teams has been used only for four years. Poland was the first winner of the tournament when four youth teams played to each other without final matches.

After that, the Bannikov Memorial was held in a scenario well-known to all the football fans. The teams are divided into two groups of four teams each and the groups winners compete for the main prize. The most frequent cup winners were Ukraine boys, who got five times (2003, 2005, 2006, 2011, 2012). Turkish national team won three times (2004, 2007, 2013). It is interesting that the team of Russia, which suffered four defeats in decisive matches (2002, 2011-2013), still remains the failure "champion". They still haven't won the trophy. Bronze awards were also given most often to Ukrainians who had won four play-offs for the third place (2002, 2009, 2010, 2013).

Last year, Georgia national team won Viktor Bannikov Memorial tournament for the second time in a row. As in 2016, the "crusaders" defeated the national team of Israel in the final match. Ukraine national team beat Slovak peers in the match for the third place. The Estonians which beat Latvia national team were the fifth ones. The seventh place was won by boys from Slovenia who defeated Belarusians. In addition, individual awards were given to the best players:

- BEST GOALKEEPER –
Luka Harshiladze (Georgia)
- BEST DEFENDER –
Alan Aussi (Ukraine)
- BEST MIDFIELDER –
Matus Begala (Slovakia)
- BEST SCORER –
Zuriko Davitashvili – 5 goals
(Georgia)

The Bannikov Memorial that has become the true epicenter of football battles for youth teams wasn't held in 2014 and 2015 because of the volatile socio-political situation in Ukraine. The resumption of the competition in 2016 gave the fans a million of unforgettable moments and fun from the high level skill of future football stars and the incredible intrigue in the fight for the prize.
